MONDAY, JUNE 23, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Asheville is filling with Southern visitors.

A colored Brass Band is organizing in Statesville.

Two rabid dogs were killed in Statesville the other day.

The wheat crop of Caswell county will be an average.

Heavy rains have visited the county, west of the Blue Ridge.

Salisbury is now busy in the possession of postal routes.

Pic-nic at Camp Patton, Buncombe county, on the 20th inst.

Mr. Walter McRae, of Wilmington, sails for Europe on Monday.

A Spoke and Handle Factory is about to be established near Charlotte.

Gen. Robert Vance delivered a temperance lecture at Winston on Friday.

The wheat harvest in Ireland county is about ready with a prospect of a fair yield.

Last week a lot of tobacco brought $9 more in the Milton market than in the Richmond.

The wheat crop in the Buncombe section is more favorable than was at first expected.

James S. West, of Buncombe county, has invited a machine for making brooms from broom corn.

Mr. F. J. Jones, of Wake county, had a son stricken on Sunday. The boy accounts he was recovering.

The court house at Winston has been pronounced unsafe, and orders for repairs have been issued.

A post office has been established at Pine Creek, Haywood county, with Mr. Henry King as postmaster.

A little son of Mr. John W. Burton, of Milton, was thrown from a buggy the other day and severely injured.

H. A. Smith, Esq., has been appointed Deputy Collector of the United States Revenue for Forsyth and Forsyth counties.

R. Garvin, of Marion, McDowell county, died on Friday last week at the residence of B. B. Bynum, Stokes county.

A smoking tobacco manufacturer of Durham, recently sent an order to Winston for 100,000 pounds of bright smokers.

John Waddell and Richard Jones, colored, had an encounter in Winston on Wednesday. Crowbars and razors were used. Both were badly hurt.

Some colored voters of Wilmington held an indignation meeting in that city on Thursday evening and strongly denounced Gen. Abbott's political rascality.

Says the Western Sentinel in regard to the Winston tobacco market:

"The prices of tobacco, in good order, have advanced within the last week, about former quotations. Prices here now are about equal to Richmond or Danville, for common manufacturing grades."

Says the Statesville American, of the 10th inst.: "From gentlemen who have recently traveled in the mountains of Western North Carolina, and know whereof they speak, we learn that one Micah mine, worked by a company of Northern gentlemen, the sum of $400 per day is paid to the laborers, and a copper mine $300 a day is paid regularly. That money in that section is most plentiful in consequence, and times easy."

We read yesterday at the office of Col. D. G. Maxwell, says the Charlotte Observer of the 20th inst. two worms, the history of which is singular. They were generated in a bucket which contains a solution of nitrate of silver and salt. The things being dead could give no explanation of how they got into existence, and it is exactly this we propose to treat in the "original paper on the curative, amphibious reptiles of the Saurian family," which Harris of the Concord Sea says we are soon to bring forth.

The worms lived in water several days after being taken from the bucket where they were born (for we have taken them; and dying, were preserved in alcohol. They have very long tails, and well, they are a natural curiosity, and a delightful study to the lover of "Natural History."

Suicide of a Romantic Convict. The convict, Henry Austin, alias Montclair Waddams, who committed suicide last Tuesday in the penitentiary at Trenton, is reported to have had a romantic history. His real name is said to have been William, and he came of a wealthy North of England family. He graduated at Eton, and he afterwards, in consequence of some offence against the laws committed at Eton, was arrested and sent to the House of Detention, where he was incarcerated for some time. He was then sent to the House of Detention, where he was incarcerated for some time. He was then sent to the House of Detention, where he was incarcerated for some time.

It is thought that up to the time of his arrest he had stolen about a hundred horses. The cause that led to his suicide was "not without its tinge of romance. When he returned from England, he was met by a handsome and accomplished wife, who faithfully followed his evil footsteps. At one time she suffered six months' imprisonment in the Middlesex county jail, for attempting to smuggle in to him, while he was in jail, a number of small files, for the purpose of aiding him to escape. For all these years she has been faithful and devoted to him, but recently he learned that she was dependent on him for her support, and he was unable to support her. He was then sent to the House of Detention, where he was incarcerated for some time.

It is reported that one hundred and fifty thousand dollars have already been expended to keep Stokes from the gal-lows.

What a Lot of Gold did our Countrymen Find.

Colonel S. T. Hauser, of the First National Bank of Helena, proposes to place upon exhibition at the Vienna World's Fair a solid ingot of Montana gold weighing four hundred pounds.

This immense block of gold was found in the Helena district, and was the work of a man who will be at the Vienna Exposition has ever seen at one time.

It is said that the gold was found in a mine which was discovered in 1851, when some enterprising Californian gold digger, the weight of which was one hundred pounds.

Its exhibition in France caused no little excitement about the newly discovered gold of Montana, and it was the subject of much discussion in the French press.
